NORTH AMERICA

CANADA

General

As the COVID pandemic rapidly spreads across India at an alarming rate, Canada has now banned flights from both India and Pakistan as seen in NOTAM G0438/21. As is the usual case with these COVID bans Medical, Cargo, Ferry, and Tech stops without the disembarkation of passengers are exempt from the ban.

USA

General

As of April 2021, the CDC has issued new policies that allow “fully vaccinated passengers” to travel domestically without any testing nor need for quarantine. To be considered fully vaccinated two weeks must have passed since the final dose of an approved vaccine has been administered. However the guidelines/restrictions for entry of international travelers remain in place UFN and no testing exemption for vaccinated passenger presently exist. The CDC’s policies can be found at their website: <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/vaccines/fully-vaccinated-guidance.html>
