NORTH AMERICA

USA

General

Effective March 2nd 2022 and until further notice, the US has banned all Russian operators from entering US airspace. The ban applies to all Russian owned, certified, operated, registered, chartered, leased or controlled aircraft, or flights operated for the benefit of a citizen of Russia.

General

The FAA recently re-issued a Notam regarding the ban on Russian aircraft operating in US airspace. The revised NOTAM now addresses a "Consolidated Screening List" which enables operators to see if entities/individuals are in compliance with US Government's regulations. Information on Russia sanctions and other export control updates can be found on the International Trade Administration's website:
<https://www.trade.gov/consolidated-screening-list>

General

The 2022 Masters Golf Tournament in Augusta occurs April 7-10. FAA have released a special air traffic procedures NOTAM which has been outlined on the NBAA website. <https://nbaa.org/aircraft-operations/airspace/regional/masters-golf-tournament/>

Airports are likely to fill up fast so think about booking those parking spots etc if needed. There will also be additional ramp fees at some airports so contact your local FBO for info.

Parking space for aircraft is likely to fill up quickly and it is recommended that the local FBO's be contact as soon as possible to secure parking and to enquire about possible ramp fees which may be charged during this event.

KSDL/Scottsdale

Fuel shortages have been reported at the at the Scottsdale airport. Several FBOs may be limited on fuel and it is recommended to confirm with the local FBOs before going to KSDL to confirm fuel availability.

KJAC/Jackson Hole

Airport will be closed toward the end of ski season this year starting April 11th and lasting thru June 27th for runway improvements. As most ski resorts will be closing by then the closure should have little impact on those wishing to ski in the area.

MEXICO

General

Increased violence and criminal activity have been reported in both Michoacan and its neighboring state of Guanajuato. A mass shooting killing 20 people occurred on March 27 in Michoacan state which has recently been the center of heavy drug-cartel violence in Mexico. The US has warned its citizens to be extremely careful when visiting the area. Michoacan is one of the world's largest avocado-producing regions in the world and criminal gangs have made recent threats against US employees working in Michoacan in March which has prompted Washington DC to suspend the export of avocados from Mexico until the situation can be stabilized. Earlier in March gunmen also killed the mayor of a town in Michoacan and the Mexican government has struggled to stem the violence against both the public and government officials.
